

Harlan, Iowa News Advertiser
Saturday November 19, 1988, pg

Donald Green, 42 ✓

NORTH PLATTE, NE – Donald Green, 42, of Maxwell, NE died Nov. 1 at his home, following a long history of heart problems. He was born June 1, 1946 at Co. Bluffs, to Francis and Irene O'Rourke Green.

He moved to Maxwell from Omaha in 1985 and served as Regional Administrator and Psychologist with Richard Young Family Life Centers for Region II until his health declined in Feb., 1986. He was formerly Director of Psychological and Psychotherapy Services for Richard Young Hospital in Omaha. He was employed by the CIA; and previous to that was in the U.S. Navy, serving as a flight crew member for over four years. He was a Creighton University Alumni and a member of Holy Spirit Catholic church and P.R. Halligan Post 163 of the American Legion.

He was preceded in death by his father, Francis Green; a sister, Susan Marie; and his father-in-law, Raymond Walker. Survivors include his wife, Marni and daughter, Arianna of Maxwell; his mother, Mrs Irene Green of Harlan; three brothers, Robert of Edmond, OK and Leo and Tom both of Harlan; and three sisters, Teresa Scherer of Littleton, CO; Mary Jo Klein of Co. Bluffs and GERALYN Christensen of Harlan.

A Mass of Christian Burial was celebrated Nov. 4 at Holy Spirit Catholic Church with the Rev. Robert Karnish as celebrant. The Revs. Charles J. O'Rourke and Garry Timmons also officiated. Burial was in Fort McPherson National cemetery with military honors graveside. Carpenter Memorial Chapel, North Platte, NE was in charge of arrangements.