Cecile E. Jacobsen

HARLAN — Funeral services for Cecile Erma Jacobsen of Harlan, will be Monday at 10:30 a.m. at the Immanuel Lutheran Church in Harlan. The Rev. Kenneth P. Alpers and the Rev. Paul Olsen will officiate.

Mrs. Jacobsen, 70, died Thursday at an Omaha hospital after a brief illness.

Burial will be in the Harlan Cemetery.

She was born on a farm east of Harlan and resided in the area most of her life.

After graduation from Harlan High School, she taught school in the Jackson Township for three years. Her husband, Levi Jacobsen, was a farmer in the area for many years. They moved to Harlan in 1968.

Survivors include her husband; son, James of Harlan; three grandsons; and two sisters, Alvina Greve and Stella Christensen, both of Harlan.

A prayer service will be held at 8 p.m. Sunday at Pauley Funeral Home in Harlan.
