

Marilyn Ann Joy, 56

Jan. 26, 1939 - Aug. 22, 1995

Harlan - Marilyn Ann Joy, daughter of Ted and Frances (Sillau) Sprinkle, was born Jan. 26, 1939, in Logan. She graduated from Logan High School in 1957.

She married Richard B. Joy Oct. 5, 1957, at the First Christian Church in Logan. The couple then moved to Harlan after their marriage, where Marilyn worked at Farners 5 & 10 Store for twenty years. She was then employed by Variety Distributors in Harlan, most recently as sales coordinator for the company. As one of her many duties, she organized the annual Christmas Show for Variety Distributors. She was an active member of Christ's Church in Harlan, and was an avid Harlan Cyclones sports fan. She died Aug. 22, 1995 at Myrtue Memorial Hospital in Harlan at age 56 years, 6 months and 27 days.

Preceding her in death were her parents. Survivors include her husband, Richard Joy of Harlan; one son, Michael Joy of Iowa State University, Ames; three daughters, Laurie (Travis) Culp of Ottumwa; Amy Joy of Davie, FL and Mary Joy at home; one sister, Jean (Gail) Dickinson of Logan; one grandson, Zachary Ryan Culp of Ottumwa; nieces, nephews and other relatives.

Memorial services were held Aug. 24, 1995, at Burmeister Funeral Home with Pastor Phil Prickett officiating. Burial of ashes was in Bethel Cemetery, located outside of Logan. Burmeister Funeral Home in charge of arrangements.