

Floyd Jensen,
88 ✓

Aug. 9, 1928 - Jan. 7, 2017

APACHE JUNCTION, AZ –

Floyd Jensen was born in Harlan to Einer and Leanna (Jacobsen) Jensen on Aug. 9, 1928 and passed away on Jan. 7, 2017 in Apache Junction, AZ. He was the oldest of three sons. He married LaVale Green on Nov. 21, 1948 in Harlan. They raised two daughters, Peggy Jo and Patricia Ann, and had a son who was stillborn. Floyd led a very productive life. He was a farmer and contractor. He built and remodeled many homes in Iowa and was a very artistic and talented woodcarver.

Floyd was beloved by his family and his many friends. He is survived by his wife of 68 years, LaVale Jensen of Apache Junction; his children, Peggy Jo Thomsen, and her husband Terry, and Patricia Ann Taylor, and her husband Ken, all of Gold Canyon, AZ; four grandchildren, Holly Valdiviez, and her husband Bob, and John, Joel, and Joshua Taylor; a great grandchild, Nick Valdiviez; two step-great grandchildren, Christopher and Paul Valdiviez; Floyd's brother, James Jensen, and his wife Jane, of Harlan; as well as many cousins, nephews, nieces, and friends.

Floyd is preceded in death by his parents, and his brother Kenneth. There will be a service in Harlan at a later date.