

Rose Koppold, 92

HARLAN — Rose Marie Koppold, daughter of Wendel and Mary Ann (Guderjahn) Koppold was born on a farm north of Harlan on May 25, 1896. She died at the Myrtue Memorial Hospital in Harlan on Aug. 14, 1988, at age 92 years, two months and 20 days. She was baptized, received her First Communion and was confirmed at St. Boniface Catholic Church in Westphalia, she attended country school, and grew to adulthood on her parent's farm. Later she attended the Academy of Cosmetology in Omaha, NE, completing a course in beauty culture in 1935. She then became the owner and operator of Admiration Beauty Shop in Co. Bluffs until 1980, when she retired and moved to Harlan. On Feb. 25, 1988, she became a resident of the Baptist Memorial Home in Harlan and this has been her home since that time. She was a former member of Queen of Apostles Catholic Church in Council Bluffs and was presently a member of St. Michael's Catholic Church in Harlan and St. Michael's Guild.

In addition to her parents, she was preceded in death by two brothers, Frank and Gottlieb "Lee" Koppold. She is survived by her brother, Otto Koppold of Defiance and a sister, Veronica (Mrs Gregory) Wolken of Harlan; nieces and nieces and nephews and other relatives.

A Mass of Christian Burial was celebrated Aug. 17, 1988 at St. Michael's Catholic Church in Harlan with Rev. David Polich as the celebrant. Burial was in Harlan cemetery with Ed Brinker, David Goetz, Myron Varley, Frank Koppold, Howard Goettsch and LaVern Koppold serving as casket bearers. Pauley Funeral Home was in charge of arrangements. /
