

Harlan News-Advertiser
Friday, Sept. 24, 2004

Leah Kahl, 82

May 27, 1922 - June 16, 2004

CONCORD, CA – Leah Mae Kahl was born May 27, 1922, in Scottsbluff, NE, the daughter of Homer and Mattie Williams and spent her youth in Lyman, NE.

Leah married Everett Kuhr Kahl of Walnut May 5, 1942, and began her life as a homemaker in the Walnut community. Leah and Everett lived in several Pottawattamie County communities for the 60 years of their marriage, spending the last several years in Council Bluffs. Everett died Jan. 12, 2003. Following Everett's death, Leah moved to California to live with her daughter, Treva. Leah died June 16, 2004, at the Mt. Diablo Medical Center in Concord, CA.

She was preceded in death by her parents; her husband, Everett; and a sister, Greta. She is survived by her daughter, Treva Kahl of Bay Point, CA; her son, Barry Kahl (Carol) of Dade City, FL; four grandchildren, Laura, Mark, Seth and Tim; one great grandchild, Ian; her sisters, Opal, Hope and Carol Jeanne; and other relatives.

Memorial graveside services were held Sept. 20, 2004, at the Layton Township Cemetery, Walnut, with Pastor Orris Drake officiating. Pauley Jones Funeral Home in charge of arrangements.
