

Deb Kaul, 63

FRANKLIN, WI — Deb Kaul, 63, of Franklin, WI, formerly of Davenport, died Tuesday, January 15, 2013 at Lake Terrace North Seniorminiums, Franklin. Visitation was held from 1-3 p.m. Sunday, January 20, 2013 at the funeral home. Services in celebration of her life were held at 10 a.m. Monday, January 21, 2013, at Weerts Funeral Home, Kimberly at Jersey Ridge Road, Davenport with Rev. Ron Carlson, St. John's United Methodist Church officiating. Honorary casketbearers were Perry Kelley, Aaron Shileny, Fernando C. Macias, Daniel Hansen, Fernando Macias, Jr., and Aiden Wells. In lieu of flowers, memorials may be made to the Mayo Clinic Brain Research or the Scott County Humane Society.

Deb was born in 1949 in Manning to Elmer Kenneth and Shirley Jean Pedersen.

Deb married Kenneth E. Kaul, and although they divorced after over 30 years, they remained friends. Deb received her MA in counseling. She worked as a counselor for the Davenport Alternative High School and as a teacher at the AIC Business College. She enjoyed walking, boating, and rode RAGBRAI twice, in addition to hiking in Colorado and Alaska.

Survivors include her daughter, Kelly Jean (Chris) Menge of Monmouth, IL; son, Dr. Patrick Ryan (Elizeht) Kaul of Franklin, WI; grandchildren, Madeleine, Mercedes and Aiden Wells, and Addison and Sophia Kaul; and sisters, Betty (Daniel) Hansen of Manilla and Mary Ellen (Perry) Kelley of Harlan, along with several nieces and nephews.
