

Judith Ann Perrien, 50

Sept. 16, 1943 - Sept. 2, 1994

Albany, OR - Judith A. Crouch Perrien was born Sept. 16, 1943 at Manilla to Virgil and Mildred (Doyel) Crouch. She was raised and educated in Irwin, graduating from Irwin High School in 1961.

She married Ronald Perrien Sept. 23, 1961 at St. Rose of Lima Church in Denison. She was a production worker at Farm Land Foods in Denison. She was a truck driver with her husband for two years. They moved to Albany, OR in 1974. She was a school bus driver for McFarland School. She also worked for Golden West Homes as an electrical foreman until 1981 when she was injured. She attended St. Marys Catholic church. She died Sept. 2, 1994 in Albany.

She was preceded in death by a brother Norman Crouch. She is survived by her husband Ronald, her daughter Tracie (Terry) Hayes of Albany, a son Jerry of Albany, her parents, Virgil and Mildred Crouch of Irwin, a brother Richard (Sharon) Crouch of Woodbridge, VA, 2 sisters Janet (Ron) Stevens of Omaha and Betty (Rick) Michaelson of McCook, NE, three grandchildren, nieces, nephews and other relatives.

Services were held at Fisher Funeral Home Sept. 6, 1994 with Chaplain Dan Wilson officiating.