

Joanne Park, 66

July 7, 1948 - July 17, 2014

GERING, NE — Joanne Carlile Park was born on July 7, 1948 at Davenport to William and Gale (Malin) Carlile. She graduated from Bettendorf High School and attended Mid America Nazarene College. She graduated from Western Nebraska Community College.

Joanne married Harold D. Park on July 4, 1971 at the Bettendorf Nazarene Church. They made their home in the western Nebraska panhandle since the 1980's. In her life span, she and her husband pastored for over thirty years in the Nazarene

Church. She also worked at Hardees for thirteen years and Wal-Mart for five years. She got a degree at WNCC for secretarial. She was a piano teacher to many and would volunteer at Alliance school being an accompanist. She loved and enjoyed God's wonderful works of nature. She wanted to make sure people were going to make it to Heaven. She was loved by all and will be missed by everyone. She was a member of the ACT United Pentecostal Church and TOPS club. Joanne died in the arms of her husband Thursday, July 17, 2014, at their home in Gering, NE. She had attained the age of sixty-six years and ten days.

Joanne was preceded in death by her parents, sister LaVon Morris and brother David Wilmes. She is survived by her husband of forty-three years Harold Park of Gering, NE; daughters, Chrystal and her husband Travis Lovell and Heather and her husband Duane Goss; son, David Park and his wife Vicky; ten grandchildren; brother Bill Carlile and his wife Marlene; and sister Sharon and her husband Ralph Brandon.

A funeral service was held on Tuesday, July 22, 2014 at 10:00 a.m. at the Atlantic Church of the Nazarene in Atlantic. Burial was held at the Layton Township Cemetery in Walnut.
