

Harlan, Iowa Tribune, Tuesday January 4, 2005, page 8

Floyd Prorok, 81

April 23, 1923 - Dec. 20, 2004

SHELBY — Floyd Robert Prorok was born April 23, 1923, at Loup City, NE, to John and Victoria (Curlo) Prorok. He grew up on the family farm and attended rural school. After his education, he worked on his parents' farm.

He married Anna Rumsey. They made their home at Oconto before moving to Shelby. Floyd worked on various farms and hog confinements over the years. He died Dec. 20, 2004, at Myrtue Memorial Hospital at age 81.

Floyd was preceded in death by his parents; three sisters, Elinor, Monica and Amelia. He is survived by his wife, Anna of Shelby; one daughter, Deborah Lillenthal of Shelby; one son, Frank Prorok of Atlantic; one grandchild, Nathan; two brothers, Ray Prorok of Callaway and Joe Prorok of Broken Bow, NE; and two sisters, Helen Prorok of Broken Bow, NE and Stella Prorok of Kearney, NE.

Funeral services were held Dec. 28, 2004, at Govier Brothers Mortuary in Broken Bow, NE, with Father Hugh Spanel officiating. Burial was in St. Mary's Catholic Cemetery in Oconto, NE. Govier Brothers Mortuary in charge of arrangements.