

Harlan, Iowa Tribune
Tuesday January 4, 1994, pg 10-A

Harland B. Thompson, 81

Oct. 10, 1912 - Dec. 8, 1993

Woodbine- Harland B. Thompson, 81, resident of Rose Vista Nursing Home, Woodbine, died Dec. 8 of heart failure. He was born Oct. 10, 1912 in Woodbine to William and Delpha (Boone) Thompson. He farmed in the Earling-Harlan area before moving to Co. Bluffs where he worked as a truck driver for Burlington Truck Lines until retiring. He then moved to Mission, TX. He returned to Omaha in 1991 and has resided at Rose Vista since July 1, 1993.

He was preceded in death by his first wife, Alice C. in 1964 and second wife Alice in 1988. He is survived by one sister, Wilma Brunstedt of Sun City, CA; two daughters, Mrs. Donald (Judy C.) Ring of Neola and Mrs. William (Linda) Belt of Co. Bluffs; one son, Gary W. Thompson of Omaha, NE; 10 grandchildren and four step-grandchildren.

Graveside services were held at Woodbine cemetery Dec. 11. Fauts Funeral Home in charge of arrangements.