

Janeth A. Vanderlinden, 62

HARLAN - Janeth Anne Meneough Vanderlinden, daughter of Henry and Clara (Ewing) Meneough, was born April 29, 1927, at Grimes. She died at Myrtue Memorial Hospital in Harlan on Nov. 23, 1989, at age 62 years, 6 months and 24 days.

She attended elementary and high school in Grimes, graduating with the class of 1944. She then continued her education, receiving a Bachelor of Science Degree in Home Economics from Iowa State University in Ames.

September 3, 1948, she married Harold Spencer Vanderlinden at Des Moines. Two daughters were born to this union. After they were married, they moved to Harlan where Spence worked at Western Engineering Co. In 1951, Spence became the General Manager of Farm Service Co-operative in Harlan. Aug. 31, 1982, they retired. Less than one month later on Sept. 10, 1982, Mr. Vanderlinden died as the result of an auto accident near Storm Lake. She then continued to make her home in Harlan.

As a resident of Harlan, she became active in many community organizations. PEO, Delphians, Harlan Literary Club, Pricillas, board of trustees, Congregational United Church of Christ, Alcoholics Anonymous, Girl Scouts and 4-H took most of her time.

In addition to her husband, she was preceded in death by her parents. She is survived by two daughters, Susan (Mrs David) Benson of Ames, and Lisbeth (Mrs Hugh) McLarty of Burlingame, CA.; three granddaughters, nieces and nephews and other relatives.

A memorial service was held Nov. 27, 1989, at the Congregational United Church of Christ in Harlan with Pastor Dennis Brayman, officiating. Burial will be in Harlan cemetery in the spring of 1990. Pauley Funeral Home in Harlan was in charge of arrangements.
