

Vincent Zimmerman, 88 ✓

OMAHA, NE — Vincent M. Zimmerman, the oldest of 14 children, was born to Frank and Cecelia Zimmerman. There were four of these that joined religious orders. Vincent spent part of his life as a religious brother of the Jesuits. Eugene also joined the Jesuits, was ordained a priest and after a lifetime of priestly duties is now in a nursing home in Milwaukee, WI. Michael is a brother in the Jesuit Order and is at Holy Rosaey Mission, Pine Ridge, SD, an Indian Mission. Vincent spent some years with the Jesuits as a religious brother. He was in charge of running a dairy.

Vincent married later, but he could not get the religious calling completely out of his system, so he did much charitable work in Omaha, with the De Paul Society. He died Dec. 25, 2005, in Omaha, at age 88.

Vince was preceded in death by his wife, Rae. He is survived by his brothers, Father Eugene Zimmerman, S.J. of Wisconsin; Br.
