Obituary

[The Record-Herald and Tribune, Thursday, January 23, 1958, page 6]

Alvin T. Barkley, son of Thomas and Roxanna Cale Barkley, was born Sept. 28, 1876 at Orillia and died December 25, at his home in Norwalk.

Aug. 13, 1902 he married Florence Patrick at Lorimer. They had two children: a son, John Thomas, and a daughter, Kathryn Florence. In August of this year, Mr. and Mrs. Barkley celebrated their 55th wedding anniversary.

Until his retirement in 1946, Mr. Barkley was a farmer. He lived his lifetime near or in Norwalk with the exception of 18 years at Mitchellville. He was a faithful and active member of the Christian church, which he served as an elder for many years. He was also a member of Welfare Lodge No. 628 of the Ancient Free and Accepted Masons, and a past patron of the Order of Eastern Star.

Survivors are his wife; the son, Thomas, of Cumming; and the daughter, Mrs. Kathryn Hall of Macomb, Ill.; two brothers, Charles of San Marino, Calif., and Fred of Gowrie; seven grandchildren, six great grandchildren and several nieces and nephews.

His parents, two sisters, and three brothers preceded Mr. Barkley in death.
