Verse
He captured my heart at an early age and never let me down
Not to mention all the Saturday garage sales around this
"doggone" town.
His warmness was all I needed whenever I was blue.
He was the rock I held onto.
Grandpa Devine was always there.
No Matter what time, and no matter where.
The love in his heart could overflow an ocean.
When anyone needed cheering up,
His laughter & jokes were the magic potion.
It is hard to let go of such a great man.
No soul will ever be like him:
No one will ever truly understand.
He saved lives in WWII, put out fires back at home,

And started his own family tree.
The best branch, of course, was me.
He was a kid at heart, and ornery every day.
But he lived his life to the fullest in his own special way.
No matter what, I know one thing to be true,
We would not be who we all are today without you!

Much love & your favorite granddaughter
Jennifer Michelle Devine-Tumea

I love you grandpa.
The pain of letting you go is almost unbearable.
But it is weighed out by the 84 years of memories
You leave with all of us.
So many lives were happier, brighter, and just plain
Better because you were in them.

You may be gone, but never forgotten.

Military

He was a U.S. Army Veteran in World War II.
