Norwalk News Items

We are sorry to hear of the accident that happened to Mrs. Graham near Cumming. She fell and broke her thigh bone. Being old and feeble it will be hard on her. Mrs. Graham was the widow of David Graham a soldier of the rebellion, whose body lies in an unknown grave in the Sunny South.

Obituary

Mrs. Barbary Ann Graham died at the old homestead January 9, 1904, age 74 years, 10 months and 1 day. Mrs. Graham came with her husband, David S. Graham, and settled on the farm on which she lived, in 1854; having had a continuous residence of 50 years. In 1864 Mr. Graham entered the Union service in the war of the Rebellion, and made the "March to the Sea" with Sherman's army. The exposure was too much for his condition and he died and was buried at Wilmington, N. C., since which time the wife traveled the weary road alone. Two of the five children passed on before the mother; Elizabeth Turner of Orilla; Jane Nicholson of Valley Junction, and James Graham, with whom she lived, remain, besides seventeen grandchildren and one great-grandchild. She was a good woman, a member of the Methodist Episcopal Church and died in full assurance of faith.
