Object to imposing Capital Punishment Sentence

San Jose, March 26 –

After exhausting a venire of forty, most of whom refused to sit in a trial where capital punishment might be inflicted, Superior Judge Richards yesterday instructed the Sheriff to select a new list of ventremen in the trial of Almon Holloway, charged with the murder of his wife, Ida Hollloway, in Palo Alto last October.

The sentiment against the death penalty is growing in Santa Clara county, as is shown by the attitude of the large list of jurors examined yesterday. Only five have expressed a willingness to serve.

Holloway will make a plea of temporary insanity. He quarreled with his wife over divorce proceedings she had begun.
