“We are gathering home, yes, one by one
As time and eternity roll,
We are gathering home
When our life work is done,
To the glorified home of the soul.
We are gathering home to you bright world,
No longer to sorrow to roam;
For the angels now wait at the beautiful gate,
Ever ready to welcome us home.
We are gathering home, yes, one by one;
Oh, soon shall the weary find rest,
Then we’ll dwell ever more on Eternity’s shore,
In the beautiful home of the blest.”
