Obituary

[The Des Moines Register, March 15, 2014, Page 14A of the Metro Edition]

Kay Anne Modde, 53, passed away peacefully at home surrounded by her family on March 11, 2014. A Celebration of Life will be held on Saturday, March 15, 2014 at 12 noon at Hamilton's on Westown Parkway, 3601 Westown Parkway in West Des Moines with burial to follow in PleasantRidgeCemetery in Orilla, Iowa. Visitation will be held on Friday, March 14 from 5 to 8 p.m. also at Hamilton's.

Kay was born in Jefferson, Iowa to Ardith (Teagarden) and Burke Snook on September 15, 1960. She graduated from UNI and became a CPA. Kay was a gifted leader and mentor in her personal and professional life. She had a way of bringing people together. She was a talented seamstress, and enjoyed the outdoors, reading, and helping others. Kay was also a devoted baseball fan.

She will be greatly missed by her husband of 14 years, Dennis Modde; her children, Joe (Lia), Josh Modde, Erin (Clint) Wilcox; grandchildren, Adley, Collin, Makayla and Makenna; her siblings, Joann Faber, Tim (Mary Jane) Snook, Dennis (Pauline) Snook, Jim (Barb) Snook, Bill (Kim) Snook, Arlene (Jim) Holmes; and many loving friends that she considered family. Kay was preceded in death by her parents.

In lieu of flowers, memorial contributions may be directed to the Des Moines Public Library in honor of Kay. Online condolences may be expressed at www.HamiltonsFuneralHome.com.

Verse
In this moment may you know
With all assurance
That the journey is unfolding
Lust as it was intended.

Maybe not as you would like,

Maybe not as you had planned;
Rather, as it was created to be.

There is great power
In every moment lived.

Yesterday is gone away.
Tomorrow has not yet arrived.
Today is all you have
And it is enough.

This moment is enough.
