Obituary

[The Des Moines Register, Friday, February 23, 1979, Page 13A]

Services for DeWayne E. Mook, 48, of Orilla, who died Wednesday of injuries suffered in an industrial accident at Swift and Co. here, will be at 11 a.m. Saturday at St. John's Catholic Church at Cumming. Burial will be at Pleasant Ridge Cemetery at Orilla.

Mr. Mook was born at Merrill and lived in the Norwalk and Orilla areas for 25 years. He was employed by Swift and Co. and also was an independent dealer for Northern Propane Gas Co. He was a member of St. John's Catholic Church at Cumming.

Survivors include his wife, Dee; three sons, Michael and Paul, both at home, and Larry of Des Moines; a daughter, Janet Mook of Des Moines; three brothers, James of Salix, Lloyd of Kansas City, Missouri, and Harold in Mississippi; and four sisters, Mrs. Pat Larson of Milwaukee, Wisconsin, Mrs. Betty Winterringer of LeMars, Mrs. Evelyn Eppel of McHenry, Illinois and Mrs. Sheryl Pyle of Sioux City.

A rosary will be recited at 8 p.m. today at Galloway-McLaren's Funeral Home at Norwalk.
