Deaths

[IowaState Register, Wednesday, December 29, 1880]

Died – Christmas Eve at 11:15 o'clock, of diphtheria. Annie M., daughter of W. R. and L. M. VanHyning, aged one year, ten months and eight days.

Gone to sleep with the tender smile
Frozen on her silent lips,
By the farewell kiss of her dewy breath,
Gold in the Clasp of the Angel of Death
Like the last fair bud of a faded wreath,
Whose bloom the white frost nips.

“Over the bosom tenderly
The pearl white hands are pressed;
The lashes lie on her cheeks thin,
Where the softest blush of the rose hath been,
Shutting the blue of her eyes within,
The pure lids closed to rest.”

“Hearts where the darling’s head hath lain,
Held by Love’s shining ray, - -
We know that the touch of her gentle hand
Brightens the harp in the unknown land - -
That she waits for us with the angel band,
Over the starry way”
