

adena, California; Mary, deceased; Hamilton, of this review; Sarah, who lives at home; John, of Denver, Colorado; Matilda, the wife of Robert Clark, of Portland, Oregon; and Thomas, who died in infancy.

Hamilton Campbell was only six months old when he was brought to Winneshiek county and to his present farm. He has never left the homestead and has now been sixty-five years upon it, having the distinction of being the oldest continuous resident of Winneshiek county. The years have brought him success, prominence and substantial fortune, for his labors have been well directed and his methods progressive and practical, and he is today numbered among the most prosperous agriculturists of Bloomfield township. He owns one hundred and sixty acres of fine land and upon this carried on farming and stock-raising for a number of years, both branches of his business proving profitable and important under his able management. In 1909 his son assumed the management of this property. Hamilton Campbell will soon move to Decorah and retire from active work.

Mr. Campbell married Miss Abbie Angier, and they became the parents of three children: John Walter, who resides in Postville, Iowa; Albert Roy, who is operating the old homestead; and Lulu May, who lives at home. Fraternaly Mr. Campbell is a member of the Modern Brotherhood of America and he gives his political allegiance to the republican party. He attends the Methodist church and is a man of exemplary character, guiding his honorable and upright life by the principles in which he believes. For sixty-five years he has lived in Winneshiek county and has witnessed during that time practically its entire growth and development. Throughout this period he has made his home on the farm which is yet his place of residence and his labors through the years have made it a valuable property. From time to time he has given hearty cooperation to movements for the public good and he has become widely and favorably known, his many sterling qualities of mind and character having gained for him the esteem and respect of all with whom he has come in contact.

ANON ANDERSON.

Anon Anderson, residing upon a fine farm of two hundred and forty acres on section 32, Orleans township, and giving his entire attention to its improve-ment and development, was born in this township April 2, 1873. He is a son of Anon and Carrie Anderson, both of whom have passed away. To their union were born six children: Ellen, who married K. L. Gruna, of Allamakee county; John and Albert, both of whom reside in Alberta, Canada; Ole, who makes his home in Saskatchewan, Canada; Hannah, deceased; and Anon, of this review. After the death of his first wife Mr. Anderson, Sr., married Sarah Tuck and to this union were born four children: Freeman, of Alberta; Roy, who resides in Saskatchewan; and Mabel and Ethel, who have passed away. The mother of these children having died, the father of the subject of this review took for his third wife Miss Emma Johnson, who survives him and lives in Ellensburg, Washington. To this union were born four children, Bernard, Ethel, Lawrence and Clarence, all of whom reside in Washington.