Clem Hill Buried At Vail
Vail, Iowa, April 23, 1928

The community was greatly shocked and overshadowed with a pall of gloom when the news was circulated Friday morning concerning the death of Mr Clem Hill of Omaha, who was formerly one of Vail's most prosperous young farmers and one of most highly respected citizens. The deceased had been taken ill about three days previous with an attack of flu, he was immediately rushed to the hospital where it was thought that he was recovering until Thursday when his heart action became worse and he suddenly passed into the great beyond, Thursday evening, April 19. Mr Hill was well known around here, having been born and reared to manhood in our midst, he was a man who always possessed kindly humor and was of a friendly, charitable and broad minded disposition. He was a devoted son and a kind brother, and was known to all for his good fellowship and fair dealings and this great loss will be keenly felt, not only by his immediately family, but also by a large circle of friends and acquaintances. He leaves to mourn his untimely bereavement his mother, Mrs Elizabeth Hill, and two sisters, Frances and Anne, with whom he made his home until the time of his death, also one brother, James, also of Omaha, besides hosts of living relatives and friends. The Funeral services were held at St Ann's church at Vail at ten o'clock Saturday morning, Rev Father J J Sullivan conducting a Requiem Mass following which a large concourse of relatives and friends followed the body to its last earthly resting place, the family lot in St Ann's cemetery. This funeral was also under the charge of the American Legion boys.

- His obituary was published in the Centerville Journal on 28 Sep 1939 in Centerville, Turner, South Dakota, United States. Anthony Molseed's Obituary from the "Centerville Journal" September 28, 1939:
A.D. Molseed rites Held Wed.

Death came quietly to A.D. Molseed on Saturday to bring to a close seven long years of suffering. After being confined to his bed and wheelchair for six years because of arthritis and after suffering periods of intense pain when no medication could clam the torture, a sudden stroke brought him relief and his life slowly ebbed away easily and gently with no pain or suffering.

Mr. Molseed was one of the early settlers of Centerville, coming here with his parents and brothers and sisters in 1889, 50 years ago. For many years the family resided in the same residence now occupied by the Molseed family and farmed the many acres of land lying south of Centerville. The present Lowrie's addition is named after Washington Lowrie, brother-in-law of Mr. Molseed, who platted the ground when it became part of the city. Mr. Lowrie was at one time superintendent of schools here.

Anthony D. Molseed was born on April 20, 1869, at DeWitt, Iowa, to Anthony and Bridget Molseed, both of whom were born in Ireland and came to this country at an early age. From DeWitt the family moved to Vail, Iowa where they resided until 1889 when they moved to Centerville.

On October 18, 1899 he was united in marriage to Mary E. Finley, the ceremony taking place in the Mother of Mercy Catholic Church in Centerville. They held the honor of being the first couple married in the Catholic Church here, a distinction which they have always cherished. To this union five children were born, all of whom survive. They are Dr. A.J. Molseed of Orfordville, Wis., B.A. Molseed of Arlington, Va., Miss Geraldine Molseed of Centerville, C.R. Molseed of Allentown, Pa., and U.R. Molseed of Yankton.

Mr. and Mrs. Molseed were devoted to their work in rearing a splendid family and at the same time taking care of the many duties in connection with maintaining their farm which in the earlier days was a greater task than now. For a time they moved onto another farm and moved outside of the city but in 1918 they moved back into town and retired from active farming operations.

Mr. Molseed had five brothers and three sisters. His death leaves only one sister, Mrs. J.M. Glynn of Chicago, Ill., of the original family surviving.

In addition to his widow, children and sister, the deceased is survived by two daughters-in-law, Mrs. A.J. Molseed and Mrs. B.A. Molseed and two grandchildren, Robert and Maryan Molseed, children of Mr. and Mrs. B.A. Molseed, besides numerous other relatives and a large number of friends.

Funeral services were conducted Wednesday morning at 9 o'clock at the Mother of Mercy Church with Father L.V. Husman in charge of the rites. Burial was in Riverview Cemetery. Pallbearers were Hugh Costello, Daniel Logue, Wm. Neiles, Chas. Newton, Emil Engman and Robert Young.

The passing of Mr. Molseed has taken another of the many early pioneers of the community who did so much in the earlier days to make Centerville a thriving and prosperous community.

Although his long illness has kept him secluded except for visitors, he will be remembered as one of the community's valued workers, by those who knew him when younger as well as those who have learned of his many contributions through his countless friends.

"Wedding Bells"

Popular Young Vail People United in Marriage Tuesday

St. Ann's church was the scene of a very pretty and impressive wedding at nine o'clock Tuesday morning, when Miss Mabel E. Dugan and Mr. James Hill were united in the holy bonds of matrimony. The ceremony was performed by Rev. D. R. Conway, of Chicago, an uncle of the bride, assisted by Rev. James Murphy.

Rev. Fr. Conway also celebrated a nuptial high mass. The bride was attended by her sister, Miss Nell Dugan as bridesmaid and Mr. Martin McCullough as best man.

As the bridal party entered the church and approached the altar, Edward Dugan sang "Oh Promise Me". The High mass was sung by Miss Nell Hickey and Edward Dugan. The latter also sang the "Ave Maria". As the bridal party left the church, Miss Hickey sang "Violets."

After the ceremony at the church, the bridal party drove to the home of the bride's parents where a four-course breakfast was served to the immediate families.

The bride is the eldest daughter of Mr. & Mrs. C. M. Dugan and is one of Vail's charming and talented young ladies. She was born here and grew to womanhood in our midst honored, respected and loved by everyone. She attended St. Ann's Academy from which institution she graduated from
