

Daisy Dent, 92

HARLAN - Daisy Dent, daughter of Jacob and Hattie Marco Smith was born July 8, 1896 near Kirkman. She was raised and educated in Oklahoma and Center Twps. Dec. 31, 1914, she married Lester Dent at Harlan and to this union four children were born. They farmed in Audubon and Shelby Counties for 45 years. Daisy was a member of the Redline Church of Christ. She has been a resident of the Baptist Memorial Home in Harlan since Dec. of 1984 and died there April 15, 1989 at age 92 years, 9 months and 7 days.

She was preceded in death by her parents; husband, Lester in 1971; daughter, Shirley; two brothers, Lem and Ralph Smith; two sisters, Ethyl Marshal and Jessie Ball and one grandson, Brian Dent. Survivors include two sons, L. Lynn and wife, Caroline and Ralph L. and wife, Delores of rural Audubon; daughter, Inona (Mrs Clifford) Axland of Irwin and a sister, Grace (Mrs Bud) Dow and sister-in-law, Alice Smith of Logan. She is also survived by nine grandchildren; 16 great-grandchildren; seven great-great-grandchildren; four step great-grandchildren; nieces, nephews and other relatives.

Funeral services were held April 18, 1989 at the Redline Church of Christ with Roy North and Tom Gaer officiating. Burial was in Redline cemetery with Gene Manke, Dean Axland, Steven Dent, Larry Axland, Charles Dent, Jerald Axland, Robert Lanoha and Roger Miltenberger serving as casketbearers. Burmeister Funeral Home in charge of arrangements.