

Harlan, Iowa News Advertiser
Friday May 6, 1994,

Dean Edmond Duel, 64

Dec. 18, 1929 - April 11, 1994

Dallas, TX — Dean Edmond Duel was born December 18, 1929, in Niles, MI. He was awarded the Nile Kinnick and I Club Full Athletic Scholarships for his achievements in track. He graduated from the University of Iowa Pharmacy School in 1952. He owned drug stores in Audubon and Harlan, and most recently was a pharmacist with the Veterans Administration in Dallas, TX. He was chairman for the section of Pharmacy Management of the Texas Pharmaceutical Association in 1987-88. He was a member of the Parian Lodge in Harlan; the Scottish Rite of Freemasonry, and the Hella Temple, and the Top O' Dallas Shrine Club. He died peacefully at his home April 11, 1994.

He is survived by his wife of 42 years, Ardyce; four children: Scott (Jane) Duel, Jennifer Landrum; Stephanie Lord (Billy); Matthew (Diana) Duel; grandchildren; brother and sister-in-law, Milo and Sara; and several nieces and nephews.

Graveside services were held April 25, 1994 at Oak Hill cemetery. A Memorial Service was held at St. Paul Methodist Church in Dallas, TX.