

Harlan, Des Moines
8 Aug 2006, pg 13A
S. W. Corley News

Area relatives and friends attending the funeral services for Sgt. 1st Class George Dauma, 37, husband of Tammy (Klindt) Dauma, at the Hamilton Funeral Home in Des Moines Saturday were Tammy's parents, Ralph and Alice Klindt; Phyllis and Max Klindt; Bernitta Goettsch; Marjorie and Jim Bojanski; Ron and Charlene Ruffcorn; Kenneth and Myrna Peters; John and Sherrie Lee and Jeff; Sharon Witt and Steve; Christina Henningsen; Carrie and Gerry Greve; Virginia Bubke; Jack Messenger; Dallas and Kendra Klindt and Marrison; James and Margy Klindt; Brian and Cynthia Smith and Matt; Shelia Bentley and Skye; Pastor Diana Holland; Jeanie Klindt; Bruce and Pam McIntosh; Muriel McIntosh; Jill McIntosh and Gavin; Nicholas Ruffcorn of Kansas City; Tom and Sandra Monahan and Austin of Cedar Falls; and Jan Holtz and Corrine. Sgt. 1st Class Dauma of Fairbanks, AK, serving in the Alaska National Guard 1st Battalion, 297th Infantry, was killed in a traffic accident near Camp Shelby in Mississippi when driving between training locations. Their humvee was hit from behind by a semi. Dauma graduated from Elk Horn-Kimballton High School.