

Warren, Iowa

Times

Pg 2-A, Wednesday

January 4, 1999

Michael Fane, 21

Michael L. Fane, 21, Des Moines, was killed Friday, Dec. 30, by a shot from an Omaha Police SWAT team sniper to end a 24-hour hostage taking incident in a South Omaha beauty salon where Fane held as many as eight people hostage.

Closed-casket services were held Monday, Jan. 2, at the Berthusen-Knutson Funeral Home. Burial followed at Oak Hill Cemetery in Hancock.

Survivors include his parents, Dr. and Mrs. Larry Fane of El Campo, Texas; two sisters, Jennifer Fane of Houston, Texas, and Meredith Fane of El Campo, Texas; one brother, Nathan Fane of El Campo; grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. Ralph Fane of Wamego, Kan.; and Mr. and Mrs. Dean Chandler of Des Moines. The Chandler family lived in Hancock before moving to Des Moines.

Family members said Fane had a drug abuse problem and had been treated recently for psychiatric problems.