

pg 13, The Nonpartiel,
Council Bluffs, Iowa
Thurs, July 16, 1981

Al J. Feldman

Al J. Feldman, 71, of Panama died Wednesday at an Omaha hospital.

He was a retired Panama farmer, a World War II veteran and member of the American Legion Post at Panama.

Survivors include his wife, Isabel; three sons, John of Palatine, Ill., Robert of York, Neb. and Michael of Panama; four daughters, Mrs. Robert (Rosemary) Cahill of Seattle, Wash., Mrs. Robert (Sharon) Brian of Lincoln, Neb., Eileen Feldman, both of Omaha; 10 grandchildren.

Four brothers, Ray of Harlan, Joe, Frank and Bernard, all of Omaha; six sisters, Marie Kramer of Earling, Mrs. Raefeld (Leona) Johnson and Elvira Feldman, both of Omaha, Mrs. Joe (Irene) Thielen of Atlantic, Rose Daley of Omaha, and Mrs. Bill (Viola) Durdon of Bellevue, Iowa.

A wake service will be held at 8 p.m. tonight and Friday at Pauley Funeral Home in Harlan.

Funeral Mass will be at 10:30 a.m. Saturday at St. Mary's Church in Panama. The Rev. David Fenelon will be the celebrant. Interment will be at the church cemetery.