

Dennis Field, 45

WOODWARD - Funeral services for Dennis Jay Field, 45, of Woodward were held Oct. 24, 1989 at Woodward-Granger High School Gymnasium. He died of cancer Oct. 21, at home. Officiating were Rev. David Ohrt of Woodward; Elder Darrell Argotsinger of Woodbine and Elder Howard Seeley of Perry. Ushers and Honorary Pallbearers had all been wrestlers of his. Active pallbearers were: one brother-in-law, four cousins and three coaches.

He was born Aug. 21, 1944 at Camp LeJuene, N.C., grew up and graduated from high school in Logan in 1962. He graduated from Graceland College in 1966, and accepted a position as math teacher and wrestling coach at Coon Rapids. He went from there to Woodward in 1970. He has taken many wrestlers to state competition and also taught in wrestling clinics during the summer, along with coaching little league baseball. He was a member of the Reorganized Church of Jesus Christ of Latter Day Saints in Perry and was recently ordained to the office of Deacon. In 1972, he married Barbara Katcher. To this union four sons were born. He was a member of the Iowa High School Wrestling Coaches and Officials Organization, the Woodward-Granger Booster Club. He was active in 4-H with the Boys, and in Scouting, and he, himself was an Eagle Scout.

Survivors include his wife, Barbara; four sons, Karol 16, Jay 13, Nick 11 and Mike 6, all at home; his parents, Dwane and Lois Field of Harlan; two brothers, Lynn of Alpena, MI., and Russell of Onawa and a sister, Martha Binkard of Omaha, NE., and three nieces.