

Council Bluffs, Iowa

Nonpariel Pg 4

Mon December 6, 1993

James A. Finken

NEOLA — James A. Finken, 37, of Logan died of cancer Sunday at Mercy Care Center in Omaha.

Mr. Finken was a native of the Logan-Beebetown area and worked for Seaman Trucking. He was a 1975 graduate of Tri-Center High School, and a member of St. Patrick's Church in Neola.

Survivors include his wife, Lou Ann; four daughters, Rachel, Lauren, Shannon and Kasey, all living at home; mother and stepfather, Alice and Robert Gillaspie of Omaha; father and stepmother, Ellis and Evelyn Finken of Logan; one sister, Joan Tapp of Beebetown; one brother, Mark of Missouri Valley; nieces; and nephews.

Service will be at 10 a.m. Thursday at St. Patrick's Church in Neola with the Rev. Wayne Gubbels officiating. Burial will be in Linwood Cemetery in Beebetown.

Visitation with the family will be Tuesday night at Beem-Belford Funeral Home. Wake will be held at 7 p.m. Wednesday at Hillside Mortuary in Neola.

Memorials are suggested to Beebetown Little League Baseball.