

Annabel Margaret Frederiksen, 79

June 4, 1914 - Sept. 4, 1993

KIMBALLTON — Annabel Margaret Frederiksen was born June 4, 1914 to John and Anna Christensen Vande Brake in Exira. She died September 4, 1993 at her home in Kimballton at age 79. She had lived in Kimballton for over fifty ears. She taught rural school north of Exira for two years and in the Kimballton public school. She owned and operated Vande Brake Tax Service from 1960 to 1984.

June 5, 1941, she married Anker Hald. To this union three children were born: Wayne, Margaret and Eileen.

She married Elmer Frederiksen June 18, 1965 at the Immanuel Lutheran Church in Kimballton.

She was preceded in death by her parents; an infant brother, a sister; husband, Anker Hald and son, Wayne Hald. She is survived by her two daughters; Margaret Von Tersch (Dean) of Merville, and Eileen Honeck (Harold) of Marshalltown; step children: Nancy Underwood of Co. Bluffs, Layon Clark (Don) and Sarah Kunik all of Kimballton; nine grandchildren; nine step grandchildren; five great grandchildren; eight step great grandchildren & other relatives.

Graveside services were held Sept. 7, 1993 at the Immanuel Lutheran cemetery in Kimballton with Rev. John Riggle officiating. Steen Funeral Home in charge of arrangements.