

Elmer "Buzz" Alvin Frederiksen, 85

Dec. 12, 1909 - Dec. 20, 1994

Kimballton - Elmer "Buzz" Alvin Frederiksen was born Dec. 12, 1909, to Martin and Carrie Petersen Frederiksen in Kimballton. He died Dec. 20, 1994 at the Salem Lutheran Nursing Home in Elk Horn. He and his family lived on a farm north of Kimballton and when he was two years old they moved into Kimballton. He spent 82 years there and the last year he had lived at the Salem Lutheran Homes in Elk Horn.

May 21, 1936 he married Helen Mercer in Co. Bluffs. To this marriage three daughters were born: Nancy, Lavon and Sarah. He married Annabel Hald June 16, 1965 at the Immanuel Lutheran Church in Kimballton. He worked as a carpenter with his brother Christy, on his own and for Gearhart Lumber for many years.

He was preceded in death by Helen and Annabel; two sisters, two brothers and one step-son. He is survived by his daughters: Nancy Underwood of Co. Bluffs, Lavon Clark (Don) of Kimballton and Sarah Kunik of Kimballton; nine grandchildren; thirteen great-grandchildren; two step-daughters; Margaret Von Tersch (Dean) of Merville and Eileen Honeck (Harold) of Marshallton; nine step-grandchildren; six step-great-grandchildren; two brothers: Christy Frederiksen of Salem Lutheran Homes of Elk Horn and Lavern Frederiksen (Luella) of Elk Horn; nieces, nephews and other relatives.

Funeral services were held Dec. 23, 1994 at the Immanuel Lutheran Church, Kimballton with Rev. John Riggle officiating. Burial was in the Immanuel Lutheran cemetery. Casket bearers were Ron Jacobsen, Terry Jacobsen, Matthew Jacobsen, Cameron Kunik, Shawn Underwood and Jack Underwood, Jr. Steen Funeral Home in charge of arrangements.