

Emogene Feauto, 86

Sept. 1, 1926 - Jan. 6, 2013

AVOCA — Emogene Feauto, daughter of William and Emma (Kruger) Immens, was born on September 1, 1926 in Excelsior Township, Lake Park. She was the youngest of fourteen children in the family. She graduated from high school in Harris with the Class of 1945. Emogene was always proud that six of her seven brothers all served in the war at the same time.

Emogene was united in marriage to Armond Feauto on February 17, 1947 in Worthington, MN. Four children were born to this union: LuJean, Loren, Paul, and Steve. The family moved to Oakland in 1969 when Armond started working at American Beef Packers. The family also spent some time in Council Bluffs, but eventually, Emogene and Armond ended up in Omaha for medical reasons.

Emogene enjoyed collecting bells, as well as anything with birds on it; she also enjoyed reading and crossword puzzles. She had a great sense of humor, and although she never had a driver's license, she rarely missed church. She and Armond were lifelong members of St. Mary's Catholic Church in Avoca and often volunteered to help with whatever they could. Emogene's children and grandchildren meant the world to her; she thought of them often, and always sent birthday or holiday cards early. Emogene died on Sunday, January 6, 2013 at The Waterford at Roxbury Park Assisted Living and Retirement in Omaha, NE having attained the age of eighty-six years, four months, and five days.

Emogene was preceded in death by an infant son, Loren, her parents, and her siblings: Bill, Hank, John, Fred, Chris, Ed, Nona, Anna, Alice, Helen, Lois, Jack and Ruth. She is survived by her husband of almost 66 years, Armond Feauto of Omaha, NE; her children: LuJean Feauto of Omaha, Paul Feauto and his wife Connie of Papillion, NE, and Steve Feauto and his wife Nancy of Oakland; three grandchildren, five step-grandchildren, and nineteen great grandchildren.

A private prayer service was held with inurnment at a later date. In lieu of flowers, memorials may be made out to St. Mary's Catholic Church in Avoca, the American Cancer Society, or the Alzheimer's Association.

Armond Feauto, 90

March 12, 1922 - Jan. 12, 2013

AVOCA — Armond Francis Feauto was born on March 12, 1922 in Westfield to U. R. "Ray" and Marie (Knittle) Feauto. He was the oldest of ten children in the family. He attended Ridge Road Rural Elementary School and graduated from Liberty Township High School in Merrill on May 22, 1940. He joined the United States Army on June 16, 1944 and served in the China-Burma-India Theater during WWII. He was honorably discharged on May 14, 1946.

Armond met Emogene Immens at a dance in Sioux Valley and on February 17, 1947 the two were united in marriage at a priest's house in Worthington, MN. Four children were born to this union: LuJean, Loren, Paul, and Steve. Armond farmed until 1958, when he and Emogene sold their farm and moved to Sioux City. The family spent some time in Lake Park and Glenwood before eventually moving to Oakland where Armond began working for American Beef Packers. He retired in 1984, when American Beef Packers closed, and he and Emogene managed the hotel in Avoca for the next few years. Armond enjoyed golfing, woodworking, and he took pride in working on his own vehicles and fixing anything he could. He enjoyed watching Notre Dame football and he loved spending time with his grandchildren and great grandchildren. He was an active volunteer at St. Mary's Catholic Church in Avoca, and he was also involved with the Knights of Columbus. He was a member of the Oakland American Legion and the local VFW and volunteered to help with many funerals and parades. Armond died on Saturday, January 12, 2013 in Omaha, NE having attained the age of ninety years and ten months.

Along with his parents, Armond is preceded in death by his wife of almost 66 years, Emogene, who died on January 6, 2013, an infant son Loren, and three brothers: Leo, Richard, and Edward. He is survived by his children: LuJean Feauto of Omaha, NE, Paul Feauto and his wife Connie of Papillion, NE, and Steve Feauto and his wife Nancy of Oakland; three grandchildren; five step-grandchildren; nineteen great grandchildren; his brothers: Bernard Feauto and his wife Marilyn, Eugene Feauto and his wife Sue, Douglas Feauto and his wife Betsye, Earl Feauto and his wife Lonnie, and Robert Feauto and his wife Carol; his sister, Shirley and her husband Dick Matt; and a sister-in-law Bernadine Feauto; other relatives and friends.

Rev. Thomas Dooley officiated the 10:30 a.m. Mass of Christian Burial for Armond and Emogene on Saturday, January 19, 2013 at St. Mary's Catholic Church in Avoca. Honorary pallbearers were: Ryan Feauto, John Smith, Brandon Brink, Don Larson, Tom King, and Terry Feauto. Military rites were conducted by the Fred Funston American Legion Post No. 227 at Graceland Cemetery in Avoca.
