

Celestin "Les" Foxhoven, 76

Nov. 18, 1933 - Dec. 17, 2009

ALGONA — Celestin Anthony Foxhoven, the son of Henry Michael and Frances Marie (Kaufman) Foxhoven, was born on November 18, 1933 in Earling. He graduated from St. Joseph's School in Earling in 1951. Les then graduated from Commercial Extension Business School in Omaha, NE in 1952.

Les was united in marriage with Sharon Kenyon on November 9, 1963 in Earling. He was an office manager at Universal Manufacturing retiring in 1998. Les was a member of St. Cecilia Catholic Church and had been a member of the Jaycee's. He enjoyed cars, watching sports, gardening, walking and being outdoors.

Les was preceded in death by his parents and a brother, Richard Foxhoven. Left to cherish his memory is his wife of 46 years, Sharon Foxhoven; a son, Craig Foxhoven and his wife, Jennifer, of Fridley, MN; a daughter, Sheila Foxhoven of Algona; a grandson, Benjamin Foxhoven; and six sisters, Betty Noonan of Columbus, NE; Sr. Charlita Foxhoven of Milwaukee, WI; Arlene Rolf and her husband, William, of Fullerton, NE; Janet Fielder of Omaha, NE; Shirley Herbst and her husband, Donald, of Earling; and Carol Foxhoven of Harlan.

Mass of the Resurrection was held at 11:00 A.M. Tuesday, December 22, 2009 at St. Cecilia Catholic Church in Algona with Father Ed Girres and Rev. Mr. Robert Larsen officiating and Sr. Charlita Foxhoven as Lector. Music was provided by Sharon Poepppe and St. Cecilia Choir. Casket bearers were Gary Bleichner, Roger Elbert, Ed Hammer, Donald Herbst, Ray Roesch and Duane Walker. Interment was in East Lawn Memorial Park in Algona.

Lentz Funeral Home of Algona

www.lentzfuneralhome.com