

Evelyn Frampton, 89

Sept. 9, 1925 - Dec. 5, 2014

ELK HORN — Evelyn Irene Frampton, daughter of Homer and Mary (Hazard) Jensen, was born September 9, 1925 in a little house in Elk Horn. She grew up around the Elk Horn and Harlan area and attended school through the 9th grade at Harlan High School. She waitressed at the Danish Inn in Elk Horn, drove a school bus for the Harlan schools and for many years she cleaned houses. Along with her sister Elinor, they helped with patients in the old Harlan Hospital. Her greatest love was painting and wall papering with her dad, and after they finished a days work treated themselves to a piece of pie and coffee before going home.

May 14, 1946, Evelyn was united in marriage to Lowell Herbert Frampton. Three children were born from this union: Craig Allen, James Arthur and Dixie Jean. She loved to cook, bake, play cards, bowling and remodeling houses. She helped her sister make quilts and she spent evenings cross-stitching quilts for many babies. She loved reading her bible and going to the women's bible study. This was an example of having a natural gift of caring for people that were sick, hurting or just in need of help. Evelyn died at the Salem Lutheran Homes in Elk Horn having attained the age of eighty-nine years, two months and twenty-six days.

In addition to her parents, Evelyn is preceded in death by a sister Elinor, a niece Eileen, a nephew Brian, daughter-in-law Ellen Christine Frampton and a brother-in-law Elmer C. Jensen.
