

Bernard A. Honeywell, 73 ✓

April 10, 1918 — Feb. 2, 1992

PERSIA — Bernard Honeywell was born April 10, 1918 at Persia to Fred and Lydia Vallier Honeywell. He graduated from Persia High School in 1936.

He married Nellie McIntosh Sept. 20, 1943. They farmed until 1971 when they moved to Persia. He died Feb. 2, 1992 in Co. Bluffs.

He is survived by his wife, Nellie of Longview Nursing Home in Mo. Valley; two daughters, Susan Ring of Cedar Rapids, NE., and Janice Honeywell of Omaha; two sons, John and Thomas, both of Persia; two sisters, Goldie Shargen of Mo. Valley and Helen Kremer of Harlan; 12 grandchildren and five great-grandchildren.

Services were held Feb. 5, 1992 at St. John's Lutheran Church in Persia with Pastor Stan Nielsen, officiating. Honorary bearers were John Stamp, Milton Watson, Lowell Chapman and Marion Legan. Bearers were William Stephens, Bernard Stephens, Bernard Kremer, Bill Morrison, Clifford Morrison Jr., and Bruce McIntosh. Military Committal service was by Persia Swanger Post 314. Burial was in the Valley View cemetery at Persia with Schumacher Funeral Home of Logan in charge.