

Ronald James Hansen, 80

June 23, 1938 - Nov. 24, 2018

ATLANTIC – Ronald James Hansen, son of Mavin and Irene Hansen, was born June 23, 1938. He was the second oldest out of our children. He was baptized and confirmed in the Methodist Church in Manning. He attended country school till eighth grade and then started at Manning Public School graduating in 1957.

Ronnie loved to be outside working with livestock and farming. After graduation he went to Ohio to work on dairy farms and show cattle. He would share the many times he rode in trains with the cattle and how much fun it was at the shows. He was married in October of 1959. To this union five children were born and raised in Audubon County. He enjoyed participating in all the children's activities such as: 4-H and fairs.

On June 2, 1990, Ronald married Theresa Hass. They lived on the farm in Audubon County. Ronnie worked at Puck's in Manning for 11 years. He enjoyed delivering equipment all over the county. In 2011, they moved to a condo in Atlantic. Ronnie moved to the Heritage House on September 11, 2017. He died on November 24, 2018, at the Heritage House.

Preceding Ronald in death were his parents.

Ronald is survived by his wife, Theresa, his five children: Linda (Darrel) Cline, Marcia (Scot) Storjohann, Tim (Emily) Hansen, Jodi (Larry) Osthus, and Nancy (Lonnie) Kragel; his three stepchildren, Michele (Todd) Tvedt, Angela (William) Brown, and Heather (Seth) Foresman. There are 14 grandchildren and four great-grandchildren. He is also survived by siblings: Duane Hansen, Janell Boswell, and Carol (Larry) Muhlbauer.

A funeral service will be held December 15, 2018 at 11 a.m. at United Methodist Church in Atlantic.

