

Elliott Havick, 87

Aug. 25, 1918 - July 1, 2006

HARLAN — Elliott Richard Havick, son of Lake C. and Bernadine (Haskins) Havick, was born Aug. 25, 1918, on a farm west of Harlan. He attended school at Harlan. April 24, 1942, he was inducted into the United States Army at Fort Des Moines. He served his country during World War II. He was awarded an Asiatic Pacific Service Ribbon and a Good Conduct Medal. He was honorably discharged Oct. 23, 1945, at Camp Polk, LA. Following his honorable discharge, Elliot worked in hospitals as an orderly, in California, at Clarkson Hospital in Omaha, NE, as well as, Myrtue Memorial Hospital. Elliot retired in 1975 from Clarkson Hospital in Omaha, NE. He was a member of the First United Methodist Church in Harlan. He died July 1, 2006, at Little Flower Haven Nursing and Rehabilitation Center at age 87 years, 10 months, and six days.

Elliot was preceded in death by his parents and sisters, Naomi Ludwig, Lois Schultz, and Eleanor Browning. Survivors include his nieces, Jodi Ratica of Fort Worth, TX; Sandi Bovaro of Chicago, IL; and Linda Sue Lamb of San Diego, CA; and other relatives.

Graveside services were held July 6, 2006, at the Harlan Cemetery with military honors conducted by the American Legion Helmer Reyelt Post No. 150 and the Shelby County VFW Post No. 941. Pauley Jones Funeral Home in charge of arrangements.

