

Julius "Dewey" Langenfeld, 64

EARLING - Julius "Dewey" Christy Langenfeld, son of Joseph and Mary Rose Heese Langenfeld, was born April 23, 1925, in Earling. His childhood years were spent in that community, and it was there that he received his early education. He attended St. Joseph Grade School, as well as St. Joseph High School, graduating in 1944.

Sept. 24, 1946, he married Helen Bruck in Harlan. During the early years of their marriage they lived in Earling, moving to Spencer in 1960. For 37 years, he was involved in LP gas sales and service, working much of that time for C-D Farm Service. His health forced him to retire in Feb. of 1983. He has been a member of Sacred Heart Catholic Church and a member of the Knights of Columbus. He had also been a volunteer fireman in Earling, as well as in Spencer. He died at his home in Spencer Jan. 2, 1990 at age 64.

He was preceded in death by his parents; one son, Duane and one sister. He is survived by his wife, Helen; one son, Kent Langenfeld of Peterson; three daughters, Kay (Kim) Duley of Lebanon, N.J.; Jean Huss (Michael) of Malvern and Jeri Ann Langenfeld of Spencer; four grandchildren; three brothers, Orlando, Francis and Donald all of Omaha, NE.; three sisters, Benita Langenfeld of Earling; Betty Langenfeld of Omaha and Margaret Hanson of Kansas City, MO., and other relatives.

Services were held Jan. 5, 1990 at Sacred Heart Catholic Church, Spencer. Officiating were Fr. Eugene Schumacher and Fr. Don Bruck. Burial was held in St. Joseph cemetery, Earling with Gene Koenig, Nick Bruck Jr., Phillip Hanson, Allan Bruck, John Langenfeld and Pat Driscoll as casketbearers. Honorary casketbearers were Dale Zieger, Duane Doran, Fred Vandeven, Jim Hynes, Arnold Dodge and Maurice Hennig. Arrangements by Wanner Funeral Home.
