

Anice Josephine "Pat" Mueller, 65

MANNING - Anice Josephine, daughter of Nicholas C. and Leonora Kuhl Loehr, was born March 17, 1923 at Defiance. She was educated in St. Paul's School in Defiance and graduated with the class of 1940. She furthered her education at Van Sant School of Business in Omaha. During her school years she worked in her parents' general store in Defiance. She was employed as a secretary in Omaha for several years.

Oct. 28, 1946, she married Elmer Mueller at Omaha. Four children, Ann, Judy, Kay and Robert were born to this union. They made their home in Manning where she operated Mueller Furniture Store. In later years as Elmer's health began to fail, Pat took over complete operation of the business. In addition to her duties at the store she spent much of her time caring for her husband until his death in 1988. She died Feb. 14, 1989 at her home in Manning at age 65 years, 10 months and 28 days.

Besides her husband, she was preceded in death by her parents and two sisters, Carola Schleier and Anita Quinn. She is survived by her children, Ann Mueller of Emmetsburg; Judy Mueller of Manning; Kay (Mrs George) McNary of Omaha and Robert Mueller of Manning; two grandchildren; two sisters, Selina Rewerts of Defiance and Delphine Fromm of Harlan; two brothers, Fr. Norbert Loehr of Milwaukee, WI and Corenlus Loehr and his wife, Mary of Wheat Ridge, CO; two nieces, nephews and other relatives.

Services were held Feb. 17, 1989 at Sacred Heart Church, Manning with Rev. Norbert Loehr S.J. and Rev. Ralph Reinhart as celebrants. Burial was in Manning City cemetery with casket bearers Malick Foley, Bob Tank, George Rewerts, Ed Reischl, Ron Quinn, Jerome Halbur, Ohde Funeral Home in charge of arrangements.
