

Vaunda L. Murray, 70

HARLAN — Vaunda (Bonnie) Louise Murray, daughter of Henry and Mable Taylor Hulsebus was born Jan. 22, 1917, at Underwood. She was educated and raised in Harlan. She had various jobs in Harlan and worked for many years at the Saylor Hotel.

On Dec. 5, 1948, she married Earl (Pete) Murray at Omaha. She died Oct. 9, 1987 at Myrtue Memorial hospital in Harlan at age 70 years, 8 months and 17 days.

She was preceded in death by her parents; brother, Howard Hulsebus and 5 sisters: Myrtle Sullivan, Eddyth Dodd, Grace Bentz, Fern Nelson and Thelma Barns. Survivors include her husband, Pete of Harlan; 5 daughters: Sister Janice Rosman of Dubuque; Norma Jean Kroman of Scottsdale, AZ; Joyce Gearhart of Des Moines; Maxine McCauley of Sioux City and Patty Murray of Harlan. She is also survived by eight grandchildren, 1 great granddaughter, many nieces and nephews and other relatives.

Funeral services were Oct. 12, 1987 at Burmeister Funeral Home with Rev. David Polich, officiating. Burial was in the Harlan cemetery with Larry Hulsebus, Kenneth Hulsebus, Walter Murray, Walter Krantz, LaVerne Koppold and Keith More serving as casket bearers.