

Thelma Myrtue, 67

HARLAN - Thelma Myrtue, daughter of Peter and Alma Thompson Brogard was born June 26, 1920, near Harlan. She attended the Tennant grade school and graduated from the Shelby High School. On Nov. 26, 1941, she married Willis Myrtue at Omaha, NE. They farmed west of Harlan until moving to Harlan in 1974. She died March 28, 1988, at St. Joseph Hospital in Omaha at age 67 years, 9 months and 2 days.

She was preceded in death by her parents; son, Jack in infancy; two brothers, Wyman and James Brogard. Survivors include her husband, Willis of Harlan; two sons, Jerry of Maryville, MO and James of Carroll; brother, Roy Brogard of Las Vegas, NV and two sisters, Mrs Eleanor Dills of Shelby and Helen (Mrs Gailard) Knudson of Irwin; six grandchildren; one great-grandchild; many nieces and nephews and other relatives.

Funeral services were March 30, 1988 at Immanuel Lutheran Church with Rev. Paul Olsen and Rev. Otto Zwanziger officiating. Burial was in the Harlan cemetery with Tim Myrtue, Mike Hansen, Butch Engel, Scott Myrtue, Jack Knudson and James Allstot serving as casket bearers. Services were conducted by Burmeister Funeral Home.