

The Barney Zimmermans received word of the death of their brother-in-law, Raymond Marshall of Omaha. Maribeth and Rae Zimmerman accompanied their parents leaving Friday to attend the wake, that evening, at the Heafy-Heafy-Hoffman Mortuary. Saturday they attended the 10 o'clock funeral mass which was concelebrated at the Holy Cross Church in Omaha by Father Mark, co-pastor of the parish, and by Father Edgar Wortmann, a cousin from Blessed Sacrament Church in Omaha.

Many relatives from this area were present including the John Zimmermans and Julie and Paul Zimmermans. Also Roman Gauls and Mike, Vern Gauls and Dave, Don Gaul; Garry Gauls, Jim Gauls, Mel Brooks and Mary Carroll all of Earling. Dewie Gaul from Sioux City gave the eulogy and meditation. Besides the above, many relatives and friends attended from Omaha, Co. Bluffs, Des Moines and Lincoln and gathered at the cemetery mausoleum for the final service with full military service.

Survivors include his wife, Marion; daughter, Kathy and Paul Andreasen; son, Jay; grandchildren, Ben, Lauren and John Andreasen, all of Omaha; three brothers, Bill of Minneapolis, Hugh and Bob, both of Co. Bluffs; nieces, nephews and many friends. Marion is an Earling native, daughter of the late John Gauls and a sister of Valerie Zimmerman.
