

TUESDAY, July 22, 2008

Harlan woman killed in accident

ELK HORN -- A 51-year-old Harlan woman died Saturday evening July 19, following a one vehicle accident near here.

Karen Monahan, 51, Harlan, died in a one vehicle accident at 6:50 p.m. on County Road F58. Monahan was driving a 2003 Chevrolet Trailblazer and was eastbound on County Road F58 and failed to negotiate a curve.

The vehicle traveled into the south ditch and rolled, ejecting Monahan. Her daughter, Amanda, 17, was seat belted and was also injured in the accident. Elk Horn Fire and Rescue transported both from the scene to Myrtue Medical Center, Harlan.

Karen Monahan was pronounced dead at the hospital and her daughter was treated and released. Monahan was a long time CDS Global employee and was a member of the Harlan site's senior management team. The Iowa State Patrol assisted the Shelby County Sheriff's office at the scene with the investigation. See page two for details regarding her services.

Karen
Monahan,
Harlan