

Roger Moore, 80

SACRAMENTO, CA - Roger Moore, 80, of Sacramento, CA, formerly of Rockwell City, died Jan. 1, 1998, in California. He was born, raised and worked in Rockwell City for many years. During the pre-World War II years he and his wife, Shirlee Willis Moore, who died in 1989, lived and worked in Lake City. He served as Chief Petty Officer in the PT Boat squadron the Pacific campaign during WW II. He was in the restaurant business prior to joining the Phillips Petroleum Company for whom he worked until his retirement in 1981. His work relocated the family to Waterloo, Des Moines, Harlan and Omaha.

He is survived by his son, Rodger Willis (Bill) Moore (Carol) of Graeagle, CA; daughter, Patricia Joleen Kimmerly and son-in-law, Robert Kimmerly of Cape Coral, FL and Hill Island, Canada; three grandchildren, Tiffany DeeAnna Wright of Lehigh Acres, FL; Howard W. (Char) Partlow IV of Reno, NV and Jason Roger Moore of Venice, CA; great granddaughter, Jenna Riley Wright of Lehigh Acres, FL; Victoria Lee of Sacramento, CA, whose care and love enhanced his last few years with companionship, church activities and visits with family; and his brother, John Moore of Iowa City.

Services were held Jan. 12, 1998, at the Lampe Funeral Home, Lake City, with Rev. Betty Weidert officiating. Burial was in the Lake City Cemetery.