June 27, 1944 - Dec. 24, 2013

WESTPHALIA — Phyllis

Elaine Musich was born June 27, 1944 in Hancock to Anna and Louis Sorensen. She grew up in Tennant and attended Shelby Tennant High School graduating in 1962.

After graduation Phyllis married Marvin Musich June 9, 1962 and she became a member of the Catholic faith. She was a devoted mother to their four children Robin, Rodney, Lorie and Kevin. The family later moved to Westphalia where they built their home together. She was very active in her parish and community.

Phyllis and Marvin worked together for many years to build the Conrad American grain bin business. For 25 years she provided care and was a med-aide at the County Care Center and retired from there with fond memories of all the residents. She died Dec. 24, 2013 at the University of Nebraska Medical Center at age 69.

Phyllis is preceded in death by her parents Louis and Anna Sorensen, husband Marvin Musich and brother Lloyd Sorensen. She is survived by her children Robin (Roger) Leuschen of Council Bluffs, Rodney (Joan) Musich of Westphalia, Lorie (Nick) Nihsen of O'Fallon, MO and Kevin (Staci) Musich of Westphalia; grandchildren Melissa and Shelby Leuschen, Luke and Lexi Musich and Savanna and Brock Musich; sister Mildred Turk of Omaha, NE and many other loving family and friends.

A Memorial Mass celebrating her life was held at 10 a.m. Fri., Dec. 27, 2013 at St. Boniface Catholic Church in Westphalia with Fr. John Dorton celebrating. She donated her body for research to the University of Nebraska Medical Center. Memorials may be directed to the family.
