Oct. 22, 1921 - April 10, 2002 ✓

HARLAN – Norma P. McMullin, daughter of Cyril Henry and Edith Felicia (Griener) Light, was born Oct. 22, 1921, in Maywood, IL. She was baptized in the Episcopal Church and graduated from Proviso East High School in Maywood with the class of 1939.

Nov. 4, 1939, she married Richard S. McMullin at the St. James Catholic Church Rectory in Maywood, IL. Three children were born to this union. After their marriage, they lived in the Chicago, IL area for several years. They then moved to Denison, where Richard was employed. His employment at American Beef of Oakland and Squealer Feed brought the couple to Harlan. They became members of St. Michael's Catholic Church at that time. She became active in the community. She belonged to the Harlan Golf & Country Club and volunteered her time as secretary at St. Michael's Catholic Church. She bowled in leagues for 20 years. In 1986, Richard and Norma purchased a condominium at Elm Crest and this became their home. After Richard's death Sept. 29, 1989, she continued to make her home at Elm Crest. It was here that she died April 10, 2002, at age 80 years.

She was preceded in death by her husband, Richard; parents and one sister. Survivors include her children, Richard McMullin of Muldorf, Germany; daughters, Suzanne Sullivan of Waukesha, WI and Judith McMullin of Gurnee, IL; seven grandchildren and other relatives.

A Mass of Christian Burial was celebrated at St. Michael's Rosman Parish Center by Rev. Jack McClure, C.P.P.S. April 13, 2002. Burial was held at the Harlan Cemetery with Eddie Roos, Sheldon Howerter, Todd Plumb, Bud Petersen, John Buman and Rand Petersen casket bearers. Pauley Funeral Home in charge of arrangements.
