

Harlan, Iowa
Tribune
pg. 2-A, Wednesday
June 1, 1988

Rick D. Randolph, 36

NEOLA - Services for Rick Duane Randolph of Neola were Friday morning (May 27) at McCurdy Funeral Home, Council Bluffs. Burial was in Council Bluffs.

Randolph, 36, died here Tues., May 24, 1988, of carbon monoxide poisoning.

Randolph was found in a car in the closed garage at the home of his brother, Dave Randolph, in Neola, where he had been staying since he and his wife separated, authorities said.

Born in Kansas City, KS., he had lived in the Council Bluffs area for most of his life.

Surviving are his wife, Kim; two sons, Bryan and Derek of Omaha, NE.; stepson, Dustin Dreier, and stepdaughter, Deanna Dreier, both of Omaha; his mother, Jenna Shreeves of Magnolia; two brothers, Carl of Council Bluffs and David of Neola; six sisters - Jenna Carrier of Onawa, Jessica Bosworth of Logan, Dawn Brodahl of Phoenix, Ariz., Sara Sellers of Tucson, Ariz., Delores Glynn of Pontiac, MI., and Ylonda Shreeves of Magnolia.