

Harlan, Iowa Tribune

Tuesday July 3, 1990, pg 10-A

Dennis Ronfeldt, 51

PERSIA – Dennis G. Ronfeldt, 51, Persia, died May 29, 1990, at the Co. Bluffs Hospital of complications from a stroke suffered the previous week. Born at Neola, he was a lifetime resident of the Neola-Persia area. He was a U.S. Navy Veteran and retired farmer and currently worked for the Harrison County Road Dept. He was a member of AFSCMA local No. 2770; Eagles Aerie No. 3763 of Atlantic and the Neola Presbyterian Church. They had been married 13 years.

Surviving are three daughters, Lori and Lisa Ronfeldt both at home, and Denise Wilson of Co. Bluffs; two sons, Russ of Yokuska, Japan and Scott, stationed at Misawa AFB in Japan; three grandchildren; mother, Ella Ronfeldt of Persia; two brothers, Lyle of Persia and Lynn of Co. Bluffs; sister, Judy Hill of Mulberry, FL.

Funeral services were held June 1, 1990 at the Neola Presbyterian Church with Rev. Dean Sparr, pastor, officiating. Burial was at the Valley View cemetery near Persia. Meyer Funeral Home handled the arrangements.