

Ulrich Rosman, 68

Nov. 2, 1923 — Aug. 26, 1992

HARLAN — Ulrich Joseph Rosman, son of Carl and Marnie (Buman) Rosman was born Nov. 2, 1923, at Defiance. He died Aug. 26, 1992, at Myrtue Memorial Hospital in Harlan, at age 68 years, 9 months and 24 days. He was baptized in St. Peter's Catholic Church in Defiance, and confirmed in St. Michael's Catholic Church in Harlan. He attended Harlan Community High School, graduating in 1942. After school, he farmed with his parents on the family farm near Harlan until 1954, when he entered the Jesuit Seminary. He remained there until 1964, and operated a cattle ranch at the St. Francis Mission Rosebud Indian Reservation. In 1965, he moved to a farm near Moorhead, where he raised quarter horses. He cleared the area of timber, and built his own home.

Sept. 30, 1967, he married Margaret Starman of Elgin, NE., at Holy Cross Catholic Church in Omaha, NE. They continued to reside in their home near Moorhead until Sept. of 1991, when they moved to their present home in Harlan. This has been their home since that time. He was a member of St. Michael's Catholic Church in Harlan.

Preceding him in death were his parents. He is survived by his wife, Margaret Rosman of Harlan; two sisters, Rose (George) Austria of Omaha, NE.; and Theda (Joe) Flies of Harlan; one brother, Louis (Irene) Rosman of Harlan; nieces and nephews and other relatives.

A Mass of Christian Burial was concelebrated Aug. 26, 1992 at St. Michael's Catholic Church in Harlan with Rev. Edward Kelly, celebrant. Concelebrating was Rev. Dennis Trausch. Burial was in the Harlan cemetery with Mike Flies, John Flies, James Rosman, Jerold Rosman, Raymund Flies, and Robert R. Austria, casketbearers. Pauley Funeral Home in charge of arrangements.
